After the Bill has passed through both chambers, it is sent to the President (Executive) for signature.

- President signs or vetoes

  Public Law is printed. (Slip Law)

  Public Laws for the Session are collected into the Statutes at Large.

  Public Laws for the Session are codified into the United States Code.